CATEGORIES – MAKING A CHOICE

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR

We're looking for you to say to our Judging Panels that "We implemented a great initiative that has enhanced our customers' experience and our organisation's results - here's the proof and we deserve recognition for it!"

A "great initiative" might be a project, or group of projects or a broader business initiative that maybe took place over a longer period of time, not necessarily in a defined project timeframe. It should be something that resulted in a great customer experience (or improvement in customer experience) whilst also benefiting the organisation.

THE CATEGORIES

- There are 19 Categories to choose from in total.
- The scoring criteria for all Categories are the same except for the Individual categories - although the content of Entries will need to be amended to fit the context of the Category(ies) entered e.g. to tell the story from an organisation, team or individual standpoint.
- Please therefore be mindful that, because telling the story in the context of the Category entered is important, if you make multiple Entries, you probably won't just be able to "cut and paste" the content.
- "Overall Best Customer Experience of the Year" will be awarded to the highest scoring Entries at the Awards.

GUIDANCE ON CHOOSING A CATEGORY (IES)

- Choose the Category which seems to fit best.
- Don't get too hung up on whether there is an exact fit between the initiative and name of the Category. Entries will be judged on the initiative submitted, not the degree to which they fit with the Category name (but obviously there needs to be some link between the initiative and the broad meaning of the Category title).
- Across all the Individual Categories we are looking for "great initiatives" that impacted both the customer experience and the organisation – however the angle that the story is told is likely to be different from the other Categories. For example, the story might be about how one person saw an opportunity, took the initiative and drove the changes themselves to deliver a great customer experience that helped the business too.
